Six West appoints Paul Cantillon as Project Manager, Flight Operations Services

Dublin, Ireland, 10 July 2019 - Six West, a world-leading provider of flight operations services to aircraft lessors, airlines and private aviation, has announced the appointment of Paul Cantillon as Project Manager FOS, to bring additional expertise to the flight operations team. His successful track record, spanning over 25 years, in both commercial and business aviation, will prove invaluable to Six West's future development.

Reporting to Matthew Gee, Director of Operations, Paul will be the primary point of contact for lessors during all phases of their aircraft transition. From project scoping and client consultations to operational oversight during and after the asset transition, Paul will be involved throughout. He will also be instrumental in the promotion of Six West's industry-first Air Operators' Certificate (AOC), designed specifically to optimise commercial aircraft leasing options for lessors.

"Paul's experience and knowledge will contribute greatly to the precise management of our clients' assets during lease transitions, distressed recovery or placing them under our new AOC", says Six West's co-founder, Jason Williamson.

Referring to his new position, Paul comments, "It's an exciting time to join Six West. I'm looking forward to applying my experience to the current and new services and demonstrating how our clients can benefit from them".

Paul is based in Six West's head office in Dublin. He can be reached by email at paul.cantillon@sixwest.ie.
