About Us

Six West is a world-leading provider of flight operations services to private aviation, corporate flight departments, aircraft lessors and airlines. Additionally, we partner with UHNWIs, financial institutions, governments and heads of state.

We understand that choosing outstanding crew members is pivotal to a successful flight operation. This is why we consistently source and vet exceptional aviation professionals and deploy them wherever and whenever you need them.

With offices in Dublin, Cork, Malta, Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands, and a connected, multi-national team, we are strategically positioned to provide our services to a dynamic and global client portfolio.

Meeting our clients' expectations is a given at Six West. We strive to exceed them.

A Message from our Co-Founders

Six West's crewing service is driven by an ambition to expedite access to quality, short-term crew. Our combined years of experience in aviation, in many different capacities and in multiple countries, gives us the knowledge and the skills to understand how to work hand-in-hand with operators in their search for competency and proficiency.

Crewing was the foundation of our business and remains a core service to us. Our specialised team is committed to delivering professional with transparency and accountability.

Our Crewing Services

Let us help you find the right pilot, flight attendant or engineer. We're in this industry together and we understand how significant the finer details of your request are.

With rigorous screening, we guarantee only fully qualified crew are in our extensive database. All training records, medicals and licences are verified and kept updated.

Through their own years of flying experience, the crew we deliver to you understand how important it is to gel with your team and adapt to your way of doing things.

Use your Time Effectively

Performing your own search for the right crew can be a tedious, lengthy process especially if you don't have in-house expertise. Six West's crew database is extensive, up-to-date, GDPR compliant and built to find competent crew in minutes. In most instances, the right aviation professional for your brief is at our fingertips.

Within minutes we present you with our best choice, you approve it and we make it happen with supporting travel arrangements and documents as required.

Spoilt for Choice

Make crew shortages and last minute, late-night searches a thing of the past. We offer pilots who are type rated, current and experienced across the range of business jets and commercial aircraft. Whether you need a crew member for one day or one year, we'll connect you with the people you need, so that the service to your client continues seamlessly.

Six West holds a “No Surprises”
commitment
To You

We understand the nuances of license types, variations of aircraft types, particular validation requirements as well as currency and proficiency requirements according to aircraft registration. We also consider how quickly the crew can get to your location and the ease at which our crew will adapt to your operational and HR policies.

24/7/365 Availability

We're here to support you in the delivery of exceptional service to your client. Whether your planning is long-term or temporary, we treat all of your requests with the same urgency and commitment. We are agile, responsive and focused on giving you the solution you need on a 24/7/365 basis.

Our “No Surprises” Commitment

Partnering with Six West to meet your crewing needs gives you freedom from lengthy visa applications, complicated contracts, payroll, crew expenses, and insurance policies. We frequently establish budget limits with our partners as we recognise that no two operators have the same policies, requirements, or expectations. We uphold our commitment to transparency so there are no burdensome, unforeseen costs at the end of a contract.
